Alma Mater

On the city's eastern border
Reared against the sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.

Chorus
Forward ever be our watchword
Conquer and prevail
Hail to thee our Alma Mater.
Pinehurst High, All hail!

Cherished by our sons and daughters
Mem'ries sweet shall throng.
Gathered 'round our Alma Mater
As we sing thy song.

Dedication

Since you have joined the faculty of Pinehurst High School you have given unselfishly of your time and talents to the betterment of the student body. You have been advisor to the seniors, the juniors and the REBEL Staff. You have done all these things, plus being an outstanding teacher. You have earned our respect and admiration for a job well done.

We hope through this dedication we can express our deep feeling of gratitude and appreciation for all that you have done.

We, the annual staff, wish to dedicate the 1962 REBEL to MRS. WILMA B. THOMPSON.

COACH ROGER PASCHAL

When the annual went to press the Pinehurst boys' basketball team was looking forward to a much improved season. Several key performers were returning. A total of nine lettermen were practicing daily.

COACH ROBERT GILLIS

At this time I believe the girls' basketball team will be the best I have ever coached which includes two undefeated teams. We have good height at guard and forward and Judy Cameron by far the best shooter I have seen in girls' basketball.

May It Live Forever In Our Memory

May it live forever—and there is something that must live forever, in the hearts and minds of every P. H. S. student—the spirit, thoughts, activities, life, loves, and troubles of its students; and what the name P. H. S. does and should mean to everyone that has come to know and love it.

Ours is an isolated world. To us our problems seem as much or more important than general worldly ones. Here we learn to face another world... large problems... but for now, this is our world... to learn and to grow in... a world of opportunity in one word, P. H. S.

Snaps and Quotes

All right ya mugs, who swiped my gun?

Everybody smile, Big Al just walked in.

Homecoming Court

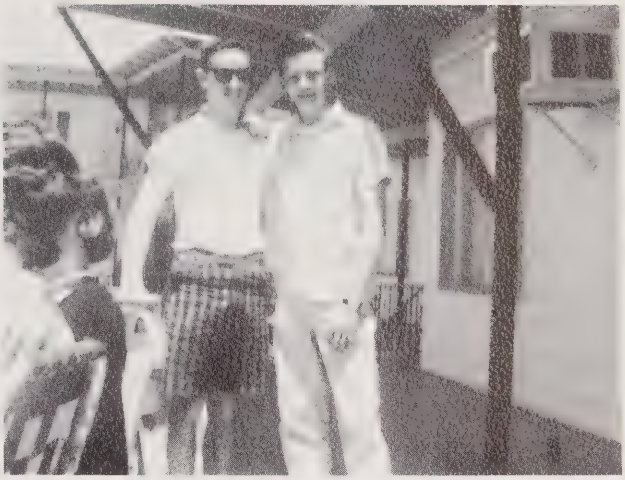
Who's next?

Got any more?

But I don't need a haircut!

For All You Folks

Are you going to slip out tonight, Miss Inman?



Cool your heels, this place is a cinch.

Big John is too pooped to pop.

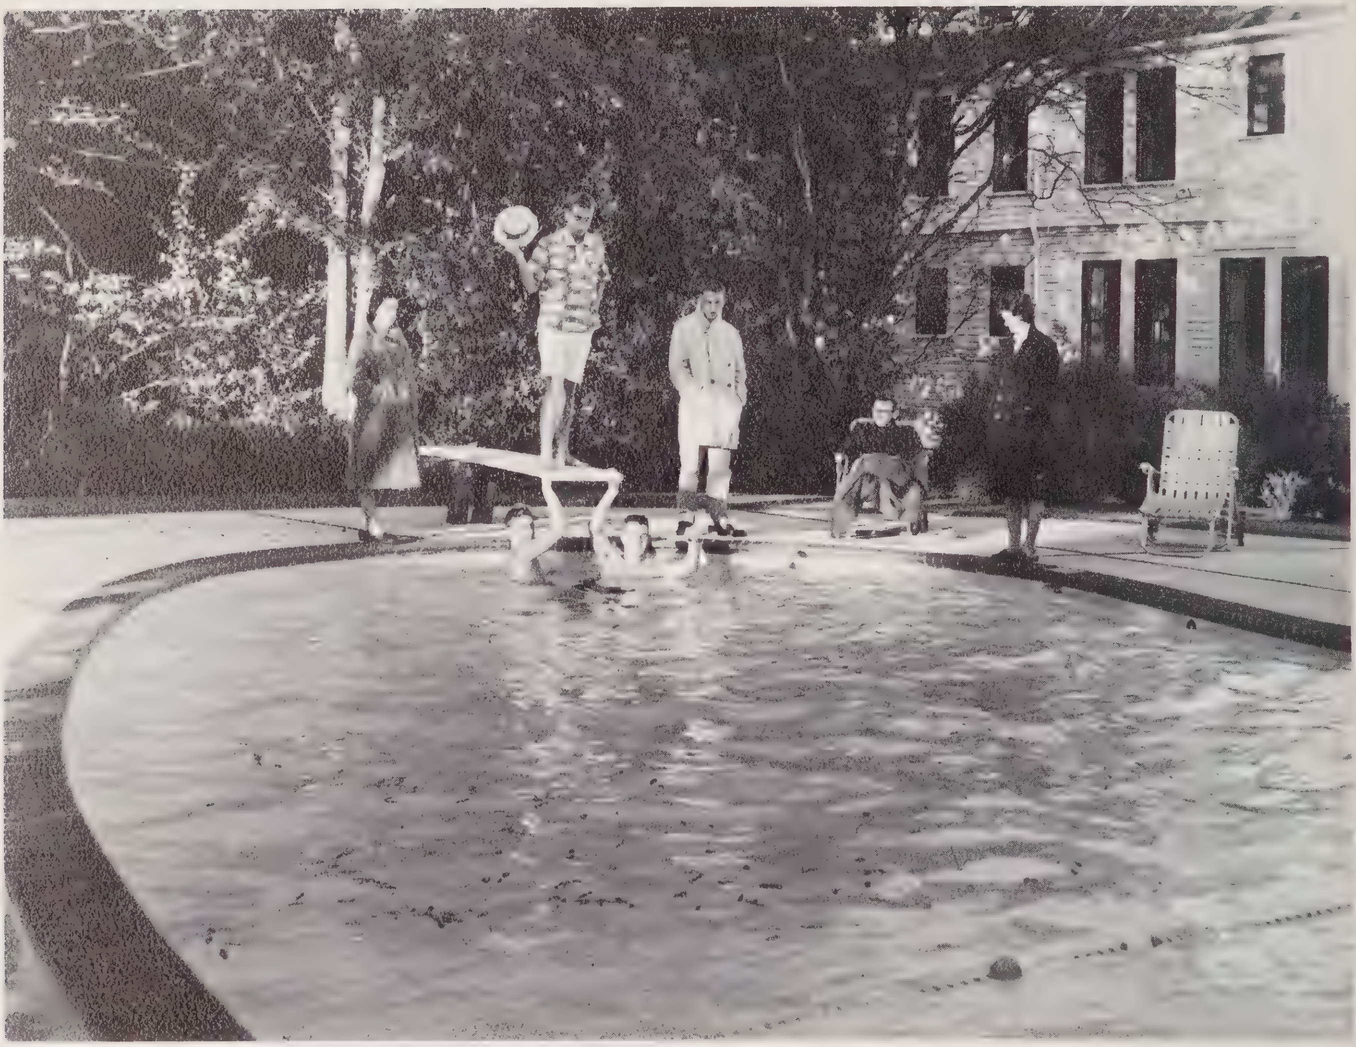
PARKE HOUSE

What, me worry?

Here we are boys!

Here's Hollywood.

Gooney Club



Copy A and Copy B
We know that's all on page one
But has anyone seen C and D
The two missing copies on page twenty-one?

Well here's your yearbook
You asked for one
We did our best
Our job is done.

The hours we toiled
Are finished although fun
Thank goodness!
There's not a page eighty-one.

While you read your yearbook
We'll study a test
With all the time that we took
This seems like real rest.

Just think, next year you'll be in high school – oh happy day! Now, let me warn you; you can flirt with any of the boys
except for a few Senior boys –
– – please leave them
for me! (I'll get very perturbed if you don't)
Just stay happy and friendly, and you
will get along fine
in school.

Be good this summer and watch out for Karen for me (I won't be
here to take care
of her – sniff, sniff)

Best of luck
Heidi (Happy's mother)

To a sweet girl

I want to wish you
the best of luck
in your next four years of high school.
I don't think you will need it because looks and personality goes a long ways
In this old World. Best of luck.
